

No Contact Pick-Up is now in effect.

In addition to a variety of online programs for all ages, the library will fill requests for items. We understand that things are changing from week to week, so we're keeping you informed through our website, newsletter and social media. Thank you so much for your support during this unprecedented time.

No Contact Pick-up Service

- No contact pick-up allows you to request materials for later pick-up.
- Please place a hold using the online catalog or call the library to request items. Your library card number and phone number are required. Our number is 914-939-6710. Press #3 for the Children's Department or #5 for the Reference Department.
- When you are notified that your hold has arrived, please make a pick-up appointment by clicking here.
- If you let us know the kinds of books you enjoy reading, the library staff will do its best to find something you would like. We provide books for all ages.
- No contact pick-up will take place at the main entrance of the library parking lot, which is located at 1 Haseco Ave.
- All patrons MUST wear a face covering when picking up materials and practice appropriate social distancing.
- When you arrive for your appointment, please call 914-939-6710 and press zero. Please stand back 6 feet while we place your items on the table. Please follow social distancing guidelines when retrieving your items.
- Please call us on the phone if you have questions.
- Please do not be alarmed if you check your account and see materials you dropped off still checked out to you; we will check items in several days after you drop them off to protect library staff handling the items. All returned materials are quarantined for 48 hours. Staff members cannot accept returns. Please use the book drop for all returned materials. The book drop is open 24/7.
- Staff members will handle materials wearing masks and gloves. All returned materials are quarantined for 48 hours before returning to circulation.
- Thank you for your patience and understanding as we begin to provide services in a new way that is safe for everyone. We look forward to seeing you at a safe distance soon!
- Note: If you are sick, please stay home and call the library to adjust your appointment as needed.
